

New Councillor Takes Oath of Office

At the August session of County Council, the new Mayor of Brudenell, Lyndoch & Raglan Township Sheldon Keller took the Oath of Office making him the newest member of County Council. At the end of June Mayor Gary Gruntz submitted his resignation, and shortly thereafter Brudenell, Lyndoch & Raglan Council appointed Mr. Keller to the Office of Mayor. Councillor Keller expressed that he is looking forward to the responsibility and opportunity to serve his municipality as Mayor and to work with the other County Councillors to move the business of the County of Renfrew forward as well.

Students At Council

Several students appeared before County Council to tell of their experiences with either working as a summer student with the County, or as a participant in Summer Company as a business owner. Twenty students were employed by the County this summer, each of them took to the podium to introduce themselves and tell council about what they learned from their summer job experience. The Summer Company participants expressed their thanks and spoke to the benefits and experiences gained by participating in the program offered through Enterprise Renfrew County.
