

JENNIFER MURPHY, ACCLAIMED AS WARDEN OF THE COUNTY OF RENFREW

Bonnechere Valley Township Mayor Jennifer Murphy formally took the Oath of Office at Decembers session of County Council and assumed the Office of the Warden of the County of Renfrew for her second term. Warden Murphy was acclaimed after no further nominations for Warden were by the November 14th deadline. Jennifer was nominated by fellow Councillor and Past-Warden Janice Visneskie Moore, with Councillor Robert Kingsbury as Seconder.

Upon assuming the Chain of Office for the County of Renfrew, Warden Murphy thanked all those in attendance and County Council for their continued confidence and support.

Warden Murphy spoke about 2017 and the positive changes that were seen, “Looking back 2017 was a year of positive change, as a council we represented this county in a positive and responsible manner not only in our own communities, but also at the Provincial and Federal levels. We worked with our Provincial and Federal Ministries to address many issues and policies in a way that was respectful and cooperative in nature, while never losing sight that these issues and policies needed change so that they that better reflected our rural perspective.” She mentioned that in 2018 “we will continue to grow our existing relationships with our various community partners like the Algonquins of Pikwakanagan, Canadian Nuclear Laboratories, Garrison Petawawa, and the OVTA Together with partners like these and many others our community can affect positive change that benefits each and every community in the County.”

Warden Murphy was born and raised in Toronto and she moved to Eganville in February 2000 because she loved the area. Her father’s family is from the Osceola area and she spent many weekends and most vacations at the homestead prior to moving. Jennifer and her husband Dave opened Murphy’s Auto Service in Renfrew in January 2001. Jennifer is a proud step-mother to two beautiful daughters, Nicole and Laura.
